Babasaheb Purandare, who wrote the award-winning Indian historical play 'Shivaji Maharaj', passed away on Saturday morning. He was in an acute condition, hospital authorities said. The hospital statement said that the author's "condition is very critical and he has been admitted in the Intensive Care Unit (ICU)". "This kind of occasion you should have advised your family members. This is not a fair thing to have a heart problem and a kidney problem at the same time," his son, actor Neelam Purandare, told a news agency here. A 76-year-old man, Purandare's daughter-in-law Maya Purandare had died of a cardiac arrest last week. He was admitted to the Nair Hospital on July 13 with chest pain. His daughter-in-law 2d92ce491b
